

COTE SETTING

The Alfresco range pairs solid timber slats with a black powder-coated frame to create a durable outdoor setting for pubs, restaurants, and beer gardens.

With clean lines and a refined finish, it suits both casual venues and premium outdoor areas. It creates a comfortable spot for outdoor dining and drinks.

Available as a stand-alone table in dining height, or as a complete setting with matching benches.

Sizes: Custom sizing is available. See below for typical configurations. Tables can be made to non-standard dimensions on request.

COMMERCIAL OUTDOOR BEER GARDEN SETTING

The Alfresco Outdoor Beer Garden Dining Set is designed for pubs, breweries, restaurants and commercial outdoor spaces.

Built for strength and long-term durability, it delivers reliable performance in high-traffic environments.

GALVANISED STEEL FRAME

The frame is constructed from fully galvanised steel tubing, finished in a matte black powder coat as standard.

The galvanising process applies a protective zinc coating to prevent rust and corrosion, making it ideal for outdoor use.

This heavy-duty construction ensures the setting withstands sun, rain and daily commercial wear.

SOLID HARDWOOD TOPS

The table and matching benches feature solid hardwood slats, creating a strong and stable outdoor dining solution.

The combination of galvanised steel and hardwood makes this setting suitable for busy beer gardens and alfresco dining areas.

OUTDOOR FINISH

All timber components are pre-treated with outdoor oil to help protect against weathering and extend the lifespan of the product.

MAINTENANCE

As with all hardwood outdoor furniture, ongoing maintenance is required to maintain appearance and performance.

We recommend periodic re-oiling to prevent cracking and preserve the timber finish.
Please refer to our Care & Maintenance Guide for full recommendations.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Is the Alfresco beer garden setting suitable for full outdoor use?

Yes. The frame is fully galvanised and powder coated to resist rust and corrosion.
The hardwood tops are pre-treated for outdoor use.

Can the size be customised?

Yes. We can manufacture this setting in custom lengths and configurations to suit your venue layout.

Is this suitable for commercial hospitality venues?

Absolutely. This setting is designed for pubs, breweries, restaurants and high-traffic beer gardens.

Does the timber require maintenance?

Yes. As with all hardwood outdoor furniture, periodic re-oiling is recommended to maintain the finish and extend product life.

Can the table be fitted with wheels?

No - the V-Leg is designed for use without wheels. For a wheel-based option, the 4-legged Alfresco version can be considered for easier movement and flexibility.
