ARIANNA

The Arianna Collection playfully combines archetypical elements and innovative design. Produced in solid ash and oak and finished with natural oils, it is available in five variations: open-backed, with a woven corded back, with an upholstered back, and with a plain wooden or else upholstered seat. Arianna furniture is robust and essential, but endowed with an eclectic lightness of touch, and is therefore well suited to dynamic environments, such as food service areas and shared working spaces.
