

COCO CCO300 CHAIR

The Coco Chair is a commercial timber dining chair designed for cafés, restaurants and hospitality spaces. Crafted from natural ash wood, it delivers durability with clean Scandinavian lines suited to modern interiors.

The plywood seat and backrest sit on solid ash legs, creating a stable and hard-wearing structure for high-traffic environments. Its distinctive oval leg profile adds subtle character while maintaining a refined silhouette.

Designed for practical use in busy venues, the Coco Chair is stackable for efficient storage without compromising comfort or visual appeal.

Coco is available in commercial-grade fabrics and selected leathers. Options vary by project scope and quantities. Send your preferred palette and we'll recommend suitable textiles and sample swatches.

Is the Coco Chair suitable for hospitality use?

Yes. Coco is specified for restaurants, cafés, bars and lounge areas where you need durable contract seating with a timber frame.

Does Coco meet fire safety requirements?

Coco can be specified with upholstery that meets common commercial fire test requirements. Share your compliance target and we'll confirm suitable textile options.

How do I care for the upholstered surface?

Vacuum regularly and spot clean using a mild upholstery cleaner suited to your selected fabric. We can provide care guidance once the textile is confirmed.

Can the chair be customised?

Yes. Upholstery, stain/finish and base options are available, subject to order volume and project requirements.

Need a quick spec check?

Send quantities, intended use (hospitality / workplace / education) and your preferred upholstery type. We'll confirm suitability and lead time.
