

DIVANO CAILLOU

From the influences and contaminations between the greatest Italian manufacturing tradition and the emotions typical of fashion, comes Liu Jo Living Collection.

The roundness of river stones runs along a velvet thread, crossing the jacquard fabric of the three-seater sofa, of the armchair and of the Callow ensemble consisting of carpet, pad, pouf backrest and cushion. The wooden trays can be turned into small low tables if necessary.

BRAND

Liu Jo

From the partnership between ATL Group and the fashion brand Liu Jo, in 2018, has led to Liu Jo Living Collection, a design idea for home living which today best represents the interaction and contamination between the emotions typical of fashion and the best Italian manufacturing tradition. “The partnership with Liu Jo derives from robust market demand which, crushed by large-scale retail, is searching for innovative products”, says Franco Tartagni, president and founder of ATL Group. “With this project we intend to provide a high quality product, able to combine fashion – so original and cool – with the world of design: a new approach to home furnishing.”
