

INPOWER HUB

The inPower hub is a sleek, wall-mounted counter system designed with an integrated inPower flex 3 module for people to charge their personal electronics. The hub offers a calm respite area, with ample room for short-term multi-taskers to pause, work, eat, take a phone call, and recharge.

- Can be mounted at three different heights: wheelchair, seated, and standing
- Incorporates an inPower flex 3 module with two AC receptacles and two USB-C ports for charging personal electronic devices
- Adds charging options to under-utilized wall space
- An optional panel creates an area of acoustic and visual privacy
- Multiple inPower hubs can be mounted side-by-side and connected through a single power outlet
- Easy to install and features minimal floor contact
- inPower stools are available to complement the seated counter height
