PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

DESIGNED FOR AIRPORT ENVIRONMENTS

LinkStool forms part of the Zaneti airport seating collection. It is suited to terminal concourses, gate lounges, food & beverage tenancies and premium lounge settings where durability and design clarity matter.

Use LinkStool to create touchdown benches, bar-height counters and collaborative waiting zones. Its footprint works well in tight circulation areas while still offering comfort for short to medium dwell times.

PAIR WITH TABLE SYSTEMS

Kon Table

The Kon Table provides a clean architectural base that complements the LinkStool frame. Together they deliver a consistent language across terminal F&B and lounge settings.

INTEGRATE WITH PASSENGER SEATING

For larger airport projects, LinkStool can be specified alongside Green Furniture Concept seating to create layered waiting environments. Combine bar-height counters with modular lounges and beam seating to support different dwell patterns within the same terminal zone.

This approach improves flow, increases usable capacity and creates a more considered passenger experience.
