

LOG TABLE

The Log Table celebrates material, proportion, and simplicity.

Defined by a strong, grounded form, the timber top sits confidently on four cylindrical legs, creating a sense of balance and permanence.

Crafted in European ash, the timber is selected for its natural warmth and expressive grain. Softly rounded corners and eased edges give the table a refined feel, allowing the material to take centre stage without excess detail.

Log is designed to move effortlessly between settings — from residential dining to hospitality and collaborative spaces — offering a calm, architectural presence that endures.
