

PAUSE HUB

A high-back upholstered lounge chair designed to provide privacy, comfort and support within contemporary commercial interiors. Its generously proportioned upholstered shell creates an enveloping seating position, while the integrated cushioning provides additional comfort for longer periods of use.

The chair is finished with a polished four-star swivel base, allowing users to move and reposition with ease. Its higher back and enclosed form make it particularly well suited to lounge areas, breakout spaces, reception areas and workplace environments where comfortable, more private seating is required.
