

RIPPLE

The Ripple Lounge Chair is a fully upholstered commercial lounge seat designed for hospitality, workplace and waiting areas. It features a solid steel internal frame for strength, high-density foam for long-term comfort, and solid ash timber legs with traditional tenon construction, available in natural or matte black finishes. The sculpted form and supportive arms create a relaxed yet refined profile suited to hotel lobbies, breakout zones and residential projects. A wide selection of local and imported upholstery options allows designers to tailor the finish to any scheme, while the robust build ensures durability in high-traffic environments.
